

ETC Annual Reporting Requirements 47 CFR §54.313(a)(2) through (a)(6)

Section 1: Certification Required For ALL Recipients of High Cost Support (ILECs and CETCs)

Section 54.313(a)(5)-(6) of the rules of the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") requires North State Communications (the "Company") to be able to make certifications regarding service quality standards and consumer protection rules and the Company's ability to function in emergency situations. The Company makes these certifications below

I, James D. McCarson am an officer of North State Communications and hereby certify:

- That the Company is complying with applicable service quality standards and consumer protection rules.
- That the Company is able to function in emergency situations as set forth in §54.202(a)(2).<sup>1</sup>

Name of Officer (Print): James D. McCarson

Title: Vice President – Corporate Administration

Signature:

Date: 6-26-12

<sup>1</sup> Section 54.202(a)(2) requires ETCs to "demonstrate its ability to remain functional in emergency situations, including a demonstration that it has a reasonable amount of back-up power to ensure functionality without an external power source, is able to reroute traffic around damaged facilities, and is capable of managing traffic spikes resulting from emergency situations."

ETC Annual Reporting Requirements 47 CFR §54.313(a)(2) through (a)(6)

Section 2: State-Designated ETC Reporting

In its Clarification Order, the FCC required state-designated ETCs that are subject to a state requirement to report to the state some or all of certain information annually, to file a copy of any relevant information with the FCC in 2012.<sup>2</sup> Specifically, state-designated ETCs must file information concerning outages, unfulfilled requests, and complaints as required in Section 54.313(a)(2)-(4) of the FCC's rules if the state requires ETCs to report some or all of this data.

North State Communications is located in North Carolina. This state commission's rules do require state-designated ETCs to file an annual report containing some or all of the following information: information concerning outages, unfulfilled requests and/or complaints. Pursuant to the Clarification Order, below is the relevant information that the Company provided in its most recent annual report:

1. §54.313(a)(2): Service Outages

The Company is not required to report service outages to the state commission.

2. §54.313(a)(3): Unfulfilled Service Requests

The Company is not required to report unfulfilled service requests to the state commission.

3. §54.313(a)(4): Service Complaints

One complaint about The Company was reported to the state commission in 2011.
